disparities
vitamin education independent significantly score
decline
role
expression cholesterol
performed previously statistics
metaanalysis
performance
depression
findings cardiovascular population
whites longitudinal suggest reported
dna
income
mean lipid effects common traits participants
span
memory
years
adult
aas single racial aging dietary diverse
ratio
snp
novel
sex symptoms
africanamerican
interaction
evidence including chronic obesity
total
age examined verbal middle discrimination
ethnology assessed americans
blood
loci
race individuals
mortality
group genetic use
stress continental greater measures
lower genetics
low european higher associations
regression diabetes
hei
intake female risk
study
studies
male
odds
factor platelet
diseases
scores
white nucleotide
follow
using urban life
ses genomewide
association cognitive numerical
men
high identified neighborhoods
stage
diversity
two healthy associated baltimore
research
genes
groups
also used among status
aged
data
effect
populations
found
adults
cell conducted serum linked sample variants overall
humans
test
diet
rate significant
ckd
egfr affect body may ancestry
index
stroke
food
cohort kidney literacy depressive
acid
women across quality identify however socioeconomic results
factors
levels
analyses included
pressure
snps
disease
poverty
health human polymorphism
increased compared function
protein related socioeconomically
analysis
time american handls
gene differences relationship
smoking
gwas
metabolism social models
psychology
interactions crosssectional
epidemiology
inflammation
hypertension baseline multiple physiology
polymorphisms